

ARAB OIL & GAS

Bulletin of information and studies published fortnightly by
THE ARAB PETROLEUM RESEARCH CENTER

Editor and Publisher: Nicolas SARKIS

Best Wishes for 2008 to All Our Readers Around the World

Vol. XXXVII - N° 871
1 January 2008

□ EDITORIAL

- Sinopec-NIOC agreement: China asserts itself as a "sovereign" super-major . . . . . 3

□ INTERVIEW

- Kashagan project is absurd under the existing conditions, Galina Chernova, Director of the NGO Globus, tells AOG . . . . . 11

□ CASPIAN SEA

- With the planned construction of a gasline from the Caspian to Russia, Moscow has scored more points off Brussels and Washington . . . . . 16

- Kuwait :                  - UAE :                  - Prices :                  - Saudi Arabia :                  - Iraq :                  - Oman :                  - Syria :                  - Algeria :                  - Yemen :                  - Qatar :                  - Egypt : AFRICAN OIL                  - Angola :	PIC to create a joint venture with Dow Chemical by acquiring a 50% interest in some of its divisions for $9.5 billion. KNPC awards Hill International/SDPM a five-year consultancy contract covering its refineries. . . . . 5 JBIC enters into a partnership with Mubadala and advances credits of $1,336 million for the Fujairah-2 IWPP. Neste Oil, OMV and Linde Group embark on industrial joint ventures with Takreer and ADNOC . . . . . 8 After gaining nearly $5/b in three days, WTI was up to $96/b on Boxing Day . . . . . 19 Government expects the 2007 budget to record a surplus of $47.6 billion and projects a surplus of $10.7 billion in 2008. National Chevron Phillips awards JGC and Daelim the construction contract for its complex in Jubail . . . . . 25 DNO revises up its estimate of the Tawke field's recoverable reserves to 150-370 million barrels . . . . . 31 Sohar power station has increased generating capacity by nearly one-quarter. . . . . 32 Syrian Gas Company issues a tender for the section of the Arab Gasline running to the Turkish border . . . . . 33 Hydrocarbon export earnings reached a new record of $59 billion in 2007. Gaz de France has extended the contracts for the bulk of its Algerian LNG supplies . . . . . 34 Part of the natural gas resources discovered on Block S-1 could be commercialized. Dragon Oil acquires interests in three exploration tracts . . . . . 36 Qatargas to start supplying LNG to Mexico in 2009 . . . . . 39 Dana Gas announces gas and condensate discovery with the Dabayaa-2 well. Methanex embarks on dimethylether venture with Echem and XinAo Group . . . . . 40 Angola LNG to start exporting 5.2 million tons/year of LNG in 2012 and supply up to 125 MCFD of gas to the domestic market. 81 companies prequalified for the 2007/2008 international exploration bid round . . . . . 42
---	--