

ARAB OIL & GAS

Bulletin of information and studies published fortnightly by
THE ARAB PETROLEUM RESEARCH CENTER

Editor and Publisher: Nicolas SARKIS

Vol. XXXVII - N° 873
1 February 2008

□ EDITORIAL

- Russia consolidates its pivotal role on the European gas market 3

□ INTERVIEW

- I think the Russian authorities are satisfied that we have fulfilled all our commitments and more, Robert Dudley, Chairman and CEO of TNK-BP, tells AOG 5

□ ALGERIA

- Launch of 7th international exploration bid round an important test for Algeria 12

- OPEC	:	Despite pressures from consuming countries, OPEC is expected to maintain its production ceiling	9
- Qatar	:	Qatar unveils new refining and petrochemical projects at the 12th Annual Condensate and Naphtha Forum	15
- Gulf	:	French President Nicolas Sarkozy returned from the Gulf with pledges for contracts worth over 50 billion euros	17
- Iraq	:	Deadline for companies interested in development projects to register with the Oil Ministry put back to 18 February	20
- Saudi Arabia	:	Despite a slowdown in the fourth quarter, Sabic's net profit topped $7.2 billion in 2007. Contracts awarded to Hanwha, ABB Contracting and China Harbor for facilities in the Ras al-Zour industrial zone.	22
- Egypt	:	Apache and Melrose announce more gas discoveries. World Bank extends a loan of $75 million to finance the expansion of the town gas distribution network.	26
- UAE	:	Abu Dhabi allocates $15 billion to the development of renewable energies and clean technologies	28
- Syria	:	Exploration bid round for offshore blocks to be relaunched. KHE-3 appraisal well drilled by Gulfsands yielded a test flow of 3,420 b/d of heavy crude	30
- Syria/Iran/ Turkey	:	Syria to import 3 million cu m/day of Iranian gas via Turkey starting at the end of 2009.	34
- Iran	:	Shortage of gas in some regions weakens the position of President Ahmadi-Nejad a little further.	35
- Kuwait	:	Larsen & Toubro awarded $421-million contract for the supply of equipment for the Clean Fuels Project	36
- Tunisia	:	ETAP thinking of creating a subsidiary for exploration-production operations abroad.	37
AFRICAN OIL
- Nigeria	:	Nigeria LNG invites prequalification applications for the sale of liquefied petroleum gas and condensate	38
- Angola	:	43 companies prequalified as potential operators for the 2007/2008 international exploration bid round.	39
STUDIES	:	- No evidence of precipitous fall on horizon for world oil production: global 4.5% decline rate means no near-term peak, by CERA/IHS.	41
		- Reserves and resources: 2007 survey of energy resources, by the World Energy Council.	44