

ARAB OIL & GAS

Bulletin of information and studies published fortnightly by
THE ARAB PETROLEUM RESEARCH CENTER

Editor and Publisher: Nicolas SARKIS

Vol. XXXVII - N° 877
1 April 2008

□ EDITORIAL

- Iraq: The oil war is only just beginning 3

□ KUWAIT

- President of KNPC insists that the political crisis will not affect the national oil company's projects 7

□ CASPIAN SEA

- BP's gas and condensate discovery at Shah Deniz in Azerbaijan was one of the world's largest in 2007. Dispute over gas flaring at Karachaganak: is this a new demonstration of "energy nationalism"? 15

- Iraq	:	Oil Ministry issues international tender for the development of the Akkas gas field	6
- Prices	:	WTI regains $5/b to nearly $106/b, after falling by $11/b between 17 and 24 March.	9
- Algeria/ Mauritania	:	Sonatrach has extended its interests in Mauritania and the Taoudenni basin	18
- Algeria	:	StatoilHydro reports the first discovery of 2008. Sonatrach and Suhail Bahwan set up a joint company to develop a nitrogenous fertilizer complex.	19
- Egypt	:	Ganope launches its 2008 Bid Round-1, offering 12 blocks for exploration. Proven natural gas reserves expected to reach 75 trillion cubic feet by the end of 2008. Amendments to the oil agreements signed by BP/RWE Dea and Shell commit them to minimum outlays of $845 million.	20
- Egypt/Israel	:	Ampal-American Israel expects the Egypt-Israel gasline to enter commercial operation in the second quarter.	25
- Saudi Arabia	:	Ashmore offers to acquire Saudi Aramco's 40% interest in the Filipino refining company Petron for $550 million. Marafiq invites proposals for the Yanbu IWPP. . .	26
- Iran	:	Government authorizes unrationed gasoline consumption, but at market prices . .	28
- Syria	:	Petrofac to build the Jihar gas processing plant for Hayan Petroleum Company . . .	29
- Qatar	:	Suez Energy International and Mitsui selected for the Ras Laffan C IWPP.	30
- Jordan	:	JPRC's agreement with the government provides for several companies to be set up to take over its activities	31
- UAE	:	Taqva is holding exclusive negotiations with Shell and Esso for the acquisition of upstream assets in the North Sea. Dana Gas to invest $120 million in exploring and developing the Western Offshore block in Sharjah	34
- Libya	:	Libyan Investment Authority is not selling an interest in Tamoil to Colony Capital.	40
AFRICAN OIL
- Gabon	:	Total Gabon's oil investments in 2007 were 139% higher than their average level in 2005-2006. Gabon thinks it leads Africa in terms of the transparency of its oil revenues.	41
- Ghana	:	Deepwater Jubilee field, discovered in 2007, could enter production as early as 2010.	44
STATISTICS	:	World proved crude oil and gas reserves, by the EIA	45