

ARAB OIL & GAS

Bulletin of information and studies published fortnightly by
THE ARAB PETROLEUM RESEARCH CENTER

Editor and Publisher: Nicolas SARKIS

Vol. XXXVII - N° 882
16 June 2008

□ EDITORIAL

- After Indonesia, whose turn next? 3

□ SAUDI ARABIA

- Saudi Aramco replaced all its output of 8.5 million b/d in 2007, keeping its liquids reserves unchanged at 259.9 billion barrels. Jubail refinery expected to cost "around $12 billion", according to the Chief Executive of Total..... 9

□ STRATEGIES

- Energy system players must assume their responsibilities and stop sending the ball to and fro, says Total's Chief Executive 20

- Prices	:	Consuming countries give a very warm welcome to the Saudis' initiative on the oil price explosion 4	4
- Kuwait	:	Non-associated gas production is due to be running at 175 million cu ft/day shortly.. 15	15
- Algeria	:	Algeria moved up from fourth to second place among France's natural gas suppliers between 2006 and 2007. GE Energy to supply gas turbines to the 1,200-MW Koudiet Eddraouch power station 16	16
- Qatar	:	Qatargas to supply 2 million tons/year of LNG to CNOOC. Phase 3 of Occidental Petroleum's development program for the ISND field approved by the government.. 22	22
- Oman	:	PDO's crude oil production fell for the seventh year in a row in 2007, having averaged 561,000 b/d 26	26
- Egypt	:	Gaz de France and Dana Petroleum announce a significant gas discovery on the West El Burullus tract. Beach Petroleum continues its Egyptian acquisition strategy with the purchase of a 20% interest in the North Shadwan tract. Burullus Gas Company awards contract to Saipem for the development of the offshore Sequoia field 29	29
- Libya	:	BP could assign Wavefield Inseis one of the largest 3-D seismic survey contracts ever awarded. 32	32
- UAE	:	Dana Gas plans to invest $500 million in Egypt, the UAE and Iraq in 2008. Masdar to invest $2 billion in the development of photovoltaic solar technology. IPIC's board of directors gives the go-ahead for refining projects in Pakistan and Morocco 34	34
- Bahrain	:	Occidental Petroleum assigned offshore Block No. 1 in addition to Blocks 3 and 4. $2-billion project for expanding the Bapco refinery is under consideration 38	38
- Caspian Sea	:	Total expected to acquire a 60% interest in the Absheron exploration tract in the Caspian Sea. 40	40
STATISTICS	:	Energy consumption rises as supplies lag, but free energy markets do work , by BP.. 42	42
- Bibliography	:	CyclOpe World Commodity Yearbook 2008, Editions Economica, Paris 25	25