

ARAB OIL & GAS

Bulletin of information and studies published fortnightly by
THE ARAB PETROLEUM RESEARCH CENTER

Editor and Publisher: Nicolas SARKIS

Vol. XXXVII - N° 894
16 December 2008

□ EDITORIAL

- Euro-Arab Gas Forum 3

□ PRICES

- U.S. Energy Department expects world oil demand to decline in 2008 and 2009. . 4

□ LIBYA

- Libya planning to acquire a 10% shareholding in the Italian energy group Eni . . . 9

- Kuwait	:	Agreement between PIC and Dow Chemical becomes embroiled in the political turmoil. KOC issues a tender for phase 2 of its non-associated gas development program.	12
- Saudi Arabia	:	Saudi Aramco cancels the request for proposals concerning the Dammam field . . .	16
- Saudi Arabia Kuwait	:	KGOC to invest $3.7 billion in developing fields in the Divided Zone between 2008 and 2012. LPG prices cut to $335-340/ton for December, but they still averaged $768-785/ton through 2008.	17
- Iraq	:	Tawke field could start exporting crude in the first quarter of 2009	19
- Egypt	:	Edison confirms the signing of a partnership agreement with EGPC for the development of the Abu Qir fields. IPR's Zain-1X well yielded flows of 5,414 b/d of oil and condensate and 16.11 million cu ft/day of gas	21
- UAE	:	Retroactive price of reference crude Murban cut to $51.40/b for November liftings. Taqa and Gazprom team up to create the Bergermeer gas storage facility	25
- Tunisia	:	Didon North-1 well on the Zarat tract encountered a 14-meter oil column.	31
- Algeria	:	GE Energy awarded contracts worth over $1 billion for improving the efficiency of 51 gas turbines	32
- Prospects	:	OPEC must produce 38 million b/d of crude in 2030 for world liquids supply and demand to be in balance, says ExxonMobil.	33
- Qatar	:	Retroactive crude oil prices reduced to $48.35-50.55/b for November liftings. Qatar World Doha 2009 conference will take place in Doha on 26-28 April, 2009	34
- Iran	:	Oil exports fell to 2.37 million b/d in the second quarter of 2008. Iran rules out exporting natural gas to Qatar for conversion into LNG.	36
AFRICAN OIL
- Angola	:	Success of Moho Nord Marine-3 appraisal well gives support to the future development of Moho North.	38
- Nigeria	:	48 companies reportedly interested in developing the infrastructure needed for the gas sector master plan.	40
STUDY	:	The Outlook for Energy: a View to 2030, by ExxonMobil	41

EURO-ARAB GAS FORUM, 19-20 March 2009, Unesco, Paris, Five Arab and African Ministers are to attend 47